

6516205299.txt

While I do not live in a community with road and traffic. I do listen to weather and traffic reports when I travel. I plan to retire to the Orlando FL area at the end of 2004. I will greatly benefit from having traffic reports. I really like the idea of not having to listen to commercials and the other filler that commercial radio stations broadcast between their weather and traffic reports. While traveling it much easier to find an XM channel with weather and traffic.